

Robert Copito
BBA '80
Vice Chairman, CBRE
Great Falls, VA

Rob Copito is a Vice Chairman for CBRE, Inc., the global leader in commercial real estate services. He is based out of their Washington, DC office and has over four decades of experience representing corporations, non-profits and AMLAW 100 and 200 firms.

Along with his wife Deborah and five rescue dogs, he lives in Great Falls, Virginia. Rob supports many animal rescue organizations including Barks of Hope based in Rincon, Puerto Rico (barksofhope.org). Rob and Deb have two grown children, Arianna and Joshua.

Rob received his Bachelor of Business Administration with a specialization in real estate from The University of Texas at Austin in 1980.