

Sean Juan

BBA '05

Equity Portfolio Manager, Point72 Asset Management
NYC, NY

Sean is responsible for managing an equity portfolio across the energy, industrials and utilities sectors at Point72. He joined Point72 in 2021 from Citadel, where he was a Portfolio Manager in their Global Equities group. He began his professional career at Goldman Sachs in 2005 within their investment banking division before joining Carlson Capital in Dallas as part of their Relative Value Equities group. After Carlson, Sean joined SAC Capital in Stamford, CT to manage a portfolio from 2011-2019.

Sean was part of the Business Honors Program at McCombs and also earned a BBA in Finance in 2005. He serves as the Board Chair of The Equity Project, a K-8 charter school in the Washington Heights neighborhood of Manhattan. He is an active member of the New York for McCombs Council (NYFM) where he currently serves as an advisory member in addition to Co-Chairing the Public Equity Investing Vertical.