

Robert Slovak
National Litigation Vice Chair
Foley Gardere
Dallas, TX

Rob Slovak is National Litigation Vice Chair at Foley Gardere in Dallas, Texas. Rob has 20 years of experience in a broad commercial trial practice. Specializing in “business divorce,” nationally and across a wide variety of industries, Rob’s trial experience includes: contract disputes; fiduciary duty claims; post-acquisition and working capital disputes; trade secrets, business fraud and business tort claims; actions involving trademark and copyright; commercial construction disputes; insurance coverage disputes, fraudulent transfer actions, products liability and environmental disputes. In addition trying cases, Rob serves as outside general counsel for clients in the construction, manufacturing and financial services industries, where his team assists with their contracts, acquisitions and human resources needs, and identifies, manages and reduces business risks.

Rob has served on numerous non-profit Boards, including the Dallas Theater Center, Operation Kindness and Reading and Radio Resource. An avid Texas Longhorn fan, Rob earned his JD from UT in 1999 and his BBA in Finance from UT in 1996. Rob’s experience at UT shaped his life and career, and he hopes to serve the BBA Advisory Board with distinction to give back to the UT community and to encourage and enhance the UT experience for others.
